

Join us on an unforgettable journey through Michigan's western Upper Peninsula with the Range Art Studio Tour. This two-day adventure is perfect for art lovers and adventurers alike, offering a unique opportunity to explore the vibrant and diverse art scene of the area while taking in the breathtaking natural beauty of the region.

Artists open their studios along this self-guided annual art event presented together with Emberlight Festival, held the first weekend in August, and designed to grow each year.

Copper Art: Ar Schneller

Open art studios provide an excellent way to explore a variety of work being created within the community. Studio tours will spark meaningful artist interactions, inspire creativity, and forge connections. Enjoy conversations about artists' work, art for sale, demonstrations.

It's not just about the art - our tour also includes several stops at local farmers' markets and scenic spots along the way.

Powderhound Farm
